Turing Machine in MIPS

Program the equivalent of an universal Turing Machine in MIPS. The program should take the Turing machine and its input list as inputs and return corresponding output and the final state.

HINT: You need to define the Turing Machine and input list by yourself using '.word' in MIPS.